

Delicious Confections of Ise

Back in the Edo period (1603 - 1868), there were a lot of chaya (traditional Japanese-style tea shops) and mochiya (Japanese rice cake shops) along the Ise Sangu Kaido Road leading to Ise Grand Shrine (Ise Jingu), and those shops served people with sweets on their pilgrimage to the shrine.

Such a tradition of hospitality still exists in Ise, and we are very confident about making you smile with a wide variety of delicious confections here.

Those confections would be great for souvenirs for yourself and for those who are important to you.

Please visit Ise to find confections that would be special for you.
